

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ADMISSION TO STUDY IN POST-BACHELOR STUDY PROGRAMMES FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2023/2024 AND THE VERIFICATION OF COMPLIANCE

Our master's programmes taught in English are based on a long-established concept of master-level studies that has been proven in practice. They are conceived as a unique combination of teaching traditional film and photographic techniques, the use of new technologies and procedures in practice, a broad theoretical and historical basis, exploring new trends and emphasis on the students' own development as original artists.

Our goal is to provide comprehensive education in individual fields of study and to train creative and experienced professionals who are ready for practical life and can start to successfully build their careers. The small number of students studying individual courses allows us a highly individual approach to each student.

The master-level studies are intended for applicants:

- Who have deep interest and experience in the field which they intend to study
- Whose current work meets the specification required for individual categories of the aptitude entrance tests
- Who have completed their bachelor's degree studies or are in the last year of their bachelor's degree studies

The standard length of study based on the accreditation of the subsequent Master's study program is two years or three years (two years in the program of Photography, three years in the Cinema and Digital Media program, Cinematography and Montage). The subsequent Master's study program is completed with a final state Master's examination and the granting of the "Master of Arts" (MgA) academic degree.
