B) COURSE OF THE ADMISSION PROCEDURE (FORM AND GENERAL CONTENT)

Upon receipt of your portfolio, we will inform you in detail about the further course of the admission procedure by messages sent to the e-mail address provided by you.

General rules:

The 1st round of the admission procedure will take place without the presence of applicants on February 10, 2023. A committee, consisting of at least 5 teachers of the Department of Photography, evaluates the portfolio by giving points to each part in accordance with the evaluation rules. The fulfilment of the obligatory point limit determines whether the applicant proceeds to the second round of the admission procedure.

You will be informed of whether you have proceeded to the second round of the admission procedure on the website prihlaska.amu.cz.

The 2nd round of the admission procedure will take place on February 16 and 17, 2023

It includes the following mandatory parts:

A test of general knowledge of history and theory of photography and visual art given by e-mail

A conceptual task on a given topic which you will receive after having met the conditions of the first round

A photographic task on a given topic which you will receive after having met the conditions of the first round

An interview with the applicant during which you will explain your intent related to the portfolio you have submitted and other parts of the admission procedure. For the interview you would receive the invitation with the ID Zoom meeting.

C) METHOD OF EVALUATION (EVALUATION CRITERIA)

The second round of the admission procedure is evaluated by giving the points by a committee consisting of at least 5 teachers of the Department of Photography which, based on a specified number of points reached, gives the dean a proposal for the applicant to be admitted to study at the Department of Photography.

The minimum number of points required to pass the examination is 50 points out of a possible 100 points.

D) MAXIMUM NUMBER OF APPLICANTS ADMITTED FOR STUDY

There is no maximum number of accepted applicants for this study programme.

E) HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Not required for the admission to this programme.

F) PERIOD FOR APPLICANTS TO VIEW THE DOCUMENTS RELEVANT FOR THE DECISION ON ADMISSION/NON-ADMISSION

Applicants may view the documents (Admission Procedure Record) relevant for the decision on their admission/non-admission to study within a period of 30 days following the delivery of a written decision of the Dean on admission/non-admission, subject to a preliminary arrangement with the Department for Student Affairs of FAMU.

G) ASSESSMENT OF EXCUSES

If an applicant cannot attend the admission examination in the second round for truly serious reasons, they may apply with the Dean of FAMU for an opportunity to retake the examination on an additional date, such an application to be submitted in writing no later than the day following the regular date of the admission examination. In the application, the applicant shall demonstrate the reasons for their absence with a relevant and reviewable document. The Dean in cooperation with the chair of the examination panel shall promptly assess whether or not the application can be honoured taking into consideration the schedule of the ongoing admission procedure and the Faculty's capacity and human resources, and shall notify the applicant in writing with a reasoning. Applicants have no legal title to an additional examination date.

H) ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULTS

Having taken the admission examination, applicants may follow the status of their respective applications and the admission/non-admission decision-making at <https://prihlaska.amu.cz>.

Applicants will receive the Dean's decision on admission or non-admission in writing. The admitted applicants will also be informed about the date of registration and any other information as needed.

FAMU may announce an additional admission term for the academic year 2023/2024. The term will be announced at least four months in advance of its application deadlines, but no later than March 1, 2023. The admission process for the second term would take place no later than by the end of the month of July 2023.
